Counselor training is being offered by the Catholic Scout Committee for adults interested in working with the Catholic youth of our diocese toward religious medals. Training will be conducted by Catholic Scouting Committee members.

A fee of $10 for attendance is being charged to defray administrative costs and assist the committee with further programs. You should bring a notebook and a pen or pencil.

Upon completion and submission of Religious Emblems Counselor Application, which will be distributed at the training, you will be mailed certification that you are currently a Religious Emblems Counselor.

Participants must be a Catholic adult currently active in their parish.

Re-certification will be done at this time, too. Cost is $3
